Performance allocation

The requested Sun Prairie band-faculty performance context is 13 players. The source contains 11 independent, single-line parts; it does not identify the two additional player assignments. Confirm the doubling roster before printing a 13-player instrumentation claim.

The original cover photograph is retained in a revised design. All six music pages are unchanged. This is the original wind edition; the proposed flexible-band arrangement is a separate work in progress.

Eight US Letter pages · Music begins on page 3
